About This Dataset

This dataset describes recent protest incidents in Iran, including location data, type of activity among protesters, and regime response. Sources are videos of protests submitted by people in Iran to international media outlets, e.g., BBC Persian and Manoto TV.

This dataset is not an exhaustive set of publicly available protest videos. This set covers approximately 250 videos.

Data covers protests that occurred between December 28, 2017 and January 9, 2018.

Column Contents

Name	Definition
Row #	Line number. Data fields span two pages.
Date	Date of protest (Gregorian Calendar date)
Persian Calendar Date	Date of protest (Persian Calendar date)
Location	City or town where protest occurred
Population	Population of the city or town where the protest occurred
Landmark	Location within city or town where protest occurred. Identified by a landmark (e.g., city square, street, building). This cell may also contain more general location information (e.g., neighborhood where the protest took place)
Size (approx.)	Rough estimate of number of protesters
Protest, Counterprotest, or Neither?	Indicates if demonstrators protested against the regime or supported it.
Notable Chants	Audible, repeated chants
Composition of protesters	Demographic composition based on sex and age. When no characteristic stands out, composition is labelled "diverse".
Protest Peaceful or Violent?	If protests involved physical violence or remained peaceful
Protest Behavior	Description of protesters' general behavior, e.g., marching, chanting, destroying public property
Regime Action	Description of the regime's response, including composition of regime security forces present, when available
Protesters Harmed or Killed?	If any protesters were harmed or killed during the event
Source	Full link to video source

Row Contents

Each row represents a separate protest, counterprotest, or regime action.

Items marked with a * are unverified.
